The Town Crier

Washington's first community forum—the Grover Cleveland—will meet in the Public Library at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the last time until September. Miss Margaret Wilson, honorary president, will preside, and addresses will be delivered by several members of Congress.

Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, will hold its annual May procession at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The children of the parish will march through the streets in the vicinity of the church, where they will conclude the ceremony with the crowning of a statue of the Virgin Mary.

The Arts Club of Washington will formally open its clubhouse, the old Colonial residence at 2017 I street northwest, with a reception from 2 until 6 o'clock this afternoon. The house has the distinction of being the only private dwelling in Washington where an inaugural ball was held.

The Firemen's Association and the Y. M. C. A. will hold a joint memorial service for the deceased members of the District Fire Department in the lecture hall of the Y. M. C. A. tonight. P. T. Moran will preside, and addresses will be delivered by Senators Sterling, of South Dakota, and Norris, of Nebraska.

The Vaughn Class of Calvary Baptist Church will hold memorial services for the founder of the class, Francis W. Vaughn, in Rock Creek Cemetery this morning. The services will be under direction of John A. Patterson and Harry A. Wood. The men will assemble at the gate of the cemetery at 8 o'clock and march to the grave.

The Public Library will be open on Memorial Day at the usual hours; that is, the Central Library will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and the Takoma Branch from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The buildings of the Smithsonian Institution and National Museum will be open to the public on Decoration Day during the regular hours, from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

The Washington Society of Washington will have a meeting in the small ballroom of the New Willard on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock for the election of officers, to be followed by a reception and dance. Brig. Gen. William C. Gorgas, president of the society, will preside.

The Chevy Chase Citizens' Association will hold its last meeting until October on Wednesday evening, June 7, at Chevy Chase Schoolhouse.

King David Lodge, No. 28, F. A. A. M., will hold a special communication tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at Brookland to confer the F. C. degree.

The Wanderlusts will take a five-mile hike in the vicinity of Barcroft, Va., this afternoon. The hikers will leave the Virginia end of the Aqueduct Bridge in automobiles at 1:30 o'clock, led by Mr. Handy. On Tuesday an all-day hike will be taken, under leadership of W. Palmer Hall and G. A. Gambs.

The Holy Name Society of Holy Trinity Church will present a vaudeville and minstrel program Wednesday night in the parish hall. Joseph A. Kuhn is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Among the performers will be Messrs. Donohue, King, Gross, Keady, Prober, Lelcheir, Edmondson, Kuhn, Daily, Henderson, Custin, Cooke, Shirley, Smith and Donovan.

ATLANTIC CITY GETS MANY CONVENTIONS

Atlantic City, May 27.—Indications are that the many conventions which have been arranged to be held in Atlantic City during the present season will attract more delegates and friends than have ever attended similar conventions during any previous year.

One of the most important conventions will be that of the New York State Bankers' Association, to be held June 7, 8, and 9, and the headquarters of which will be at Hotel Traymore. It is expected that President Wilson will attend because of the achievements of the administration through the enactment of the Federal reserve law. Senator Robert L. Owen and Congressman Glass, whose names the Federal act bears, are also expected.

The semi-annual meeting of the Association of Life Insurance Counsel, held at the Traymore Thursday and Friday, attracted many of the leading representatives of the most important life insurance companies throughout the United States.

JEWISH ALLIANCE HOUSE ENDS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The winter season of the Jewish Alliance House Pupils has been brought to a close. An elaborate musical program and the rendition of a playlet from de Maupassant's novel, "The Lost Necklace," by the members of the Young Girls' Dramatic Club, marked the closing. This was followed by a song recital by the Alliance Club.

In addition to the musical program, a demonstration of emergency bandaging was given by the girls' first aid class, and papers were read on "Babies" and "The Jew in America." At the close of the program the guests were taken on a tour of inspection of the house.

Mrs. Charles Goldsmith is president of the house council. Those assisting in the work are Mrs. William Minkels and Mrs. David Rines, who is chairman of the council.

The Jewish Alliance House, maintained by the Council of Jewish Women, and in charge of volunteer workers, was opened a little over four years ago. The house is constantly a scene of numerous activities throughout the entire week. At the outset it was opened with three classes a week, but soon the council found it necessary to increase the number and now classes are maintained every afternoon and evening.

Steamer Hercules Torpedoed.

London, May 27.—The steamship Hercules, nationality unknown, has been sunk by a mine or submarine, Lloyd's announced today.

BALTIMORE FIRE CHIEF KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Baltimore, May 27.—Capt. Thomas J. Strahler, of No. 11 Truck Company, was almost instantly killed at Mount Royal avenue and Dolphin street this morning when the district chief's automobile, in which he was riding, collided with a passenger car being driven into the Rittenhouse-Seitz Auto Company's garage by Edwin Thompson.

James W. Riegin, who was seated directly beside Capt. Strahler and who was driving the car for him, escaped almost without a scratch. Thompson, too, missed injury completely. Strahler, who was acting chief of the Third district in place of Chief Frederick Brannan, relieved of duty for the day, was buried beneath the two-seated powerful red roadster of the Fire Department. When it was lifted from him after the accident he was unconscious.
